Lesson for June 9
THE STORY OF THE REHABITATES
(Temperance Lesson.)

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 18:1-10.
GOLDEN TEXT—We will drink no wine.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Strong to do the right.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Loyal to the law.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Accepting a life Moral Standard.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Form of Modern Persuasion.

I. Who Were the Rehabitates?
(1 Chron. 2:50.)
They were Kethites of the tribe of Judah, the sons of the King of the Philistines. They were a people of the lowest caste, and were despised by the Jews.

II. The Rehabitates Told (vs. 1-10).
In the days of Jehoiachin the Lord charged Jeremiah to bring the Rehabitites into the house of the Lord and to teach them the law of the Lord. This he did in a place where the people might behold them, the sign being to teach them by example.

III. The Rehabitates Told (vs. 1-10).
The father of the Rehabitites had given the command that they should not drink wine. Their first obedience put to shame the children of Judah for their lack of obedience to their Heavenly Father, Joadah, the father of the Rehabitites, was only a man, but the command which Joadah gave them was the command of God.

IV. The Rehabitates Told (vs. 1-10).
The father of the Rehabitites had given the command that they should not drink wine. Their first obedience put to shame the children of Judah for their lack of obedience to their Heavenly Father, Joadah, the father of the Rehabitites, was only a man, but the command which Joadah gave them was the command of God.

V. The Rehabitates Told (vs. 1-10).
The father of the Rehabitites had given the command that they should not drink wine. Their first obedience put to shame the children of Judah for their lack of obedience to their Heavenly Father, Joadah, the father of the Rehabitites, was only a man, but the command which Joadah gave them was the command of God.

ATTENTION—Your opportunity to buy some of the most beautiful property in Appomattox County will arrive
TUESDAY, JUNE 11th
10:30 A. M.
We are indeed fortunate in being able to offer for sale
AT AUCTION
on the above date that splendid property practically adjoining the town of Appomattox, on the Old Red House Road, and known as

Morningside or Joe O'Brien Place
That portion of the property nearest to Appomattox has been subdivided into beautifully lying home sites. Size from 2 to 3 acres. Each has a road frontage and offers an excellent opportunity to have a home in the county within a few minutes of the center of the town of Appomattox. County taxes. Plenty of room for you to have a large garden, raise chickens, have a cow and give your family the fresh air of the open spaces. This property is served with electric lights.

Just beyond these large home sites lies the farm proper. It is absolutely one of the best farms in the entire county, equipped with splendid buildings including a modern beautiful ten-room home. This home is located on a knoll overlooking the town of Appomattox. It is beautifully papered and painted. It is equipped with electric lights, hot and cold running water, bath, screened throughout and has splendid awnings, all of which go with this home place. It has a nice lawn, flowers, shrubs and trees surrounding it. It is an ideal place for your home. It has splendid land of red and chocolate loam top soil with a clay subsoil. The entire place is gently rolling and is splendidly well watered with running streams. Practically all of the place is cleared with the exception of probably 20 to 25 acres of good woods land. This place produces bumper crops of tobacco, corn, wheat and hay. It will make a splendid dairy farm. Ample fruit orchard for home use. Two-car garage with bricked cellar under it. There is one four-room tenant house in good condition, one large stock barn, three tobacco barns, sheds and out-buildings. All of the buildings on the place are in first-class condition. Approximately 168 acres in the farm tracts. It is impossible to thoroughly appreciate the beauty of this place and the opportunity offered until you can inspect it. Make arrangements to look at it at once.

Appomattox is a growing little city and boasts one of the best school systems in the State of Virginia. This property so close to town offers wonderful opportunities for the education of your children.

You simply can't afford to miss this chance, so make your arrangements to attend this sale Tuesday, June 11th, 10:30 A. M. The sale will be made on the ground regardless of weather conditions. Free prizes will be given away. Terms easy. Lunch.

For further information, see Mr. R. H. Wright, owner, on the property, or our advertising representative, care of Hotel at Appomattox, Va.

FELT BAD AFTER EATING
"Four years ago, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disgusted me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and I found it in 'Felt Bad' after eating. It is a fine and safe remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation."
